In conclusion, we would ask, did Fredercollege, as it said it had? That is the only question at issue. Ironton had her subscription of $20,000 ready to put up on ten days notice. If Fredericktown's money is up, where is the need of Peter Funk's assistance to raise the money?

The above is a closing paragraph of a long, rambling, half-apologetic, halfexplanatory editorial in last week's Ironton REGISTER on the alleged subject of Fredericktown's method of raising her college subscription, About the only reply it seems worth while to make is that contained in the reply made by the old Quaker to a man who wanted to sell him a load of wood.

The farmer approached the Quaker and said: "You don't want to buy a load of wood do you?" The Quaker mildly replied: "Friend, thou tellest a lie, and then askast a question."-Fredericktown Democrat.
